CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY Faculty Senate

MINUTES
November 3, 2021
3:00 P.M. – Moot Court Room LB 101

PRESENT: Faculty Senate LeadershipR. Krebs, A. Kumar, and R. Carnellaculty Senators faculty and staff service award celebrations, wherealfy and staff were honored for their long service. President Sands mentioned the susful Evening with the Stars, inlying NASA. He also touted our close and collaborative ties with WRU. He then introduced Drathelle Banks as the inaugural Presidential Faculty Fellow. President Sands also gashout out to the men's basketball team and Coach Dennis Gates's commitment to 300s: culture, classroom, and court.

V. University Curriculum Committee

Marcus Schultz-Bergin

(Report No. 4, 2021-2022)

Dr. Schultz-Bergin, chair of UCC, introducted Consent agenda, which passed by voice vote:

Consent Agenda

- A. Biology, Accelerated 4+1 BS/MS
- B. Physics, Accelerated 4+1 BS/MS
- C. Nursing/Business Administration, MSN/MBA

Discussion Agenda

- Dr. Schultz-Bergin then introduceble discussion agenda. The following items passed by separate voice votes:
- D. Doctor of Nursing Practice, DNP
- E. Business, MBA (Report No. 4, 2021-2022)
- F. 5-Year Academic Calend&review (for AY 2023-2028)Report No. 4, 2021-2022)
 - Dr. Schultz-Bergin explained that several modalitions were suggested by UCC and reviewed by Steering (involving urgent chances Juneteenth and Columbos, made without Senate approval, which now require retroactive appeal). This detail was approved by voice vote
 - Dr. Schultz-Bergin then referred to other togas still being discussed by UCC and Steering involving Columbus Day and the day before filesgiving, sought by students as a day off. He also raised the possibility changing the name of Contous Day to Indigenous People's Day. He also referred to the imbalance betweenber of teaching the in Fall and Spring (which could possibly be balanced tour snow days or a reading days).

Faculty from different departments and collegeske about various contingent circumstances based on their curricula that would impthe discussion. Following this discussion, two motions were introduced:

UCC introduced a Motion to recommend a chaingte Calendar to rename "Columbus Day" to Indigenous People's Day. This motion passed by voice vote

UCC introduced a Motion that Indigenous People's should alternate with Veteran's Day (Tu/Th / MWF), so that 2025 would echo 2021 iis thetail on the 5-year calendar attached with the Senate agenda.

Brian Mickelbank made a motion for the academic calendar, going forward, seconded by Jim Marino:

Eliminate "midterm week" designation; renaffmeidterm grading deadline" as "midsemester

PAGE 4 November 3, 2021

and announced the upcoming graduatedent awards for which fallow can nominate worthy students.

XV. New Business – there being none, rumeeting was adjourned at 5:11 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,