

Guidelines for Competitive Solicitation Processes and Interaction with the Office of General Counsel

These Guidelines are intended to assist and inform implementation of the vasidiositation processes set forth in the Cleveland State University Purchasing Policy:653384 pertaining to Requests for PropossalRequests for Quations and Invitations to BidTemplates will be available for each of the three methods of solicitatioand will not require legal review, unless a change is made to the template language. The Office of General Counsel is always available resource discuss and assist with any novel or complicated transaction even if a template is being utilized.

1. As set forth in Rule 33465-18(B), it is important to always consult with a purchasing agent prior to accepted Theproposal receiving the highest scoinse the one judged to best serve the interests of the University.

- c. A Request for Quotations \ X \ Y _] •] u] o Œ š \ v / d e spšecific items or s \ % Œ \ μ a small project with an estimated purchase price under $25,000. format typically covers defined item(s) to be purchased, number of items, and per unit obstset forth in Rule 334465-27, a RFQ is also usted procure a public inprovement project with an estimated \ \ š \ A Œ " ñ i U i i i μ š o \ A " î i i U i i v š Z h v] A Œ •] š Ç s Œ Z] š š the work scope defined in public improvement project RFQ
- d. As set forth in Rule 33465-04(A), for good and supplies to be purchased below the bid threshold, a minimum of three quotesere acquired when possible; one or more quotes are to be provided by the department and the others by Purchasing, with the lowest responsive becoming the vendor of chaic
- e. As set forth in Rule 33465-04(B), for purchase of services below the RFP threshold, the department should supply a minimum of three quotes where possible for the identical scope of work, reviewable by Purchasing, with the lowest, most responsive begothe vendor of choice.
- 5. As noted above, when using a template, legal review of the solicitation document is not required unless a change is made to the templateguage If the solicitation awards subject to CSU terms and condition sursuant to a CSP urchase Ordeor CSU is not a signatory, legal review is not necessary. Also, for an Invitation to Bid only involving supplies, equipment or tangible products, legal review is not necessary.
- 6. The Office of General Counsel will review solicitation documents as to form and substance, and is not charged with drafting such documents should be proofed for substantive and clerical errors before submitting regal review.
- 7. If an apparent low bidder is to be rejected based on a nonresponsive bid or a determination that the bidder is not responsible contact the Office of General Counsel prior to finalizing any decision or action to reject the bid as there may be legal ramifications regarding such matter that need to be analyzed, weighed and discussed Additionally, if there is any question regarding | v š OE ‰ OE š š | } —w| } 3á A! áïaš š š | š OE š š | } —w|; µ }